PROJECTS

MOVIE SENTIMENTAL ANALYSIS USING MACHINE LEARNING

Sentiment analysis for movie reviews using machine learning is a process where we analyze textual data from movie reviews to determine the overall sentiment or opinion (positive, negative, or neutral) expressed in the reviews. This analysis is valuable for understanding audience reactions and can assist in various business and content-related decisions.

AUTHORIZATION – BUILT USING MERN STACK AND JSON WEB TOKEN

Implemented an authorization system with secure user authentication using JSON Web Token. Ensured security and functionality through unit testing of authentication modules and integration testing of API endpoints.
